TERMS OF DAILY DEMOCRAT TO THE COUNTRY. Three Months

RALLY! RALLY!!

There will be a Mass Meeting this evening, at the Falls City Market-house, at early gas light, when several speakers will be present and address the people on the issues of the day.

We publish in another column the instructions of the Confederate Attorney General as to the sequestration law passed by rality. the Confederate Congress. For injustice, despotism and treachery to mankind, it is without a parallel in any civilized country. Investments have been made in the South by men living in other States, under all the guarantees of the Federal Constitution, and trusting to the good faith of Southern people who invited these investments for their some agglomeration of fraud and falsehood, benefit. Now, the politicians of the Confederate States choose, for their ambitious purposes, to get up a rebellion and seize all she is to be coerced, conquered and subjuthe property owned within their limits by gated. men who happen not to live within their juriediction. This adds treachery to robbery. Property has been enticed into their importance, and an affectation of wisdom limits to be seized; men have been seduced into investments to be robbed. These Border Slave State Secessionists are to be exempt from the robbery for the present; but those who rob in this manner will not hesi tate to rob each other before they are done. They do not require proof that the property was used by the consent of the owner to in jure any Confederate State. It is enough country. that it is owned by a party living in a free State A foreigner who takes uo part in the war, if he has his domicile in a free State, is to be robbed.

We have some curiosity to see how the distinction between persons in this State is to be made. Our Southern Rights men generally deny being Secessionists, and, there fore, they are all in danger. They are not as sound as they ought to be. Their only chauce is to get themselves arrested, or run away and pretead they are in danger at home. We advise them to read these instructions and see how to save themselves. No man is safe who owns property South; for these robbers need money. They are needy and seady. Perhaps, however, they are as well off as any citizen of the Confed erate States; for it will take all they have to support this war much longer; and depend upon it these robbers, in their secret den at Richmond, will stop at nothing. The extent of their robbery will only be limited by

The means they take to discover the property are of a piece with the act of despotism itself. They establish an inquisition: compel attorneys, agents, bank officers and corporation companies to reveal all they know, thus violating all the sanctity of honor and probity in nosing out their prey. He that dares conceal anything is liable to five thousand dollars fine and six months' imprisonment, besides being compelled to pay over double the amount concealed.

There is no excuse for such an act as this. It is false that the United States has passed any act resembling this. No property of any rebel is confiscated, except it be used in support of the rebeilion directly. What a man voluntarily sells or contributes to the support of the Confederate States is confiscated: no hing else. The fact of the use of a particular piece of property, or its intend ed use by the Cenfederates, with the consent of the owner, has to be proved before a court to subject it to confiscation. This bears no resemblance to this despotic act of the Confederate Government.

Let the robbers proceed; but recollect, the last shilling will be paid back. There is yet power to support justice and punish tyrants and knaves in this country. It has been slew, but it will be sure-depend on

The Richmond Examiner is quite exercised about boundaries. The Confederate knaves must have all south of the Missouri river, down to Cairo; thence np the Ohio to the Virginia line. This includes Kentucky, Maryland, Delaware, and a large part of Missouri. We admire the modes'y of the usurpers in setting up claims to States whose people have sparned their usurpation and despotism. We knew, when they effected great zeal for State rights, they lied, and that all their pretended horror of coercion was simulated for dishonest pur- the Doctor, and we congratulate both acposes. Nothing they could do would sur. prise a sensible man, unless they should, in a single instance, do what they promise or

The whole rebellion has been marked by the most audacions treachery and menda city. Not only men, under a solema oath to support the Government, engaged in secret plots to overthrow it, but men who held high trust iu the Union, where honor as well as oaths demanded fidelity, secretly and with a treachery that would put the Devil to a blush, used their trust to destroy what they were in honor and conscience bound to support. Judas carried the purse, and so tution, and under a secret oath to ruin if they could not rule. Officers of the army, who had been selected out in their youth from the million less favored, fed, olothed, honored and supported by the toil and sweat of the labor of the country, sold their conscience and obligations and honor to the demon of revolution. All faith to a Gov. erument that had placed its property in their reach, to protect and benefit them, was trampled under foot. Even soldiers and officers, placed on the frontier to protect these rebels from the knife and tomahawk of the savage, were captured, insulted, and driven away. To cap the olimax, all priamongst them, at their invitation and under the protection of a Constitution which they were bound to support, is confiscated, against all the dictates of honor and mo-

The darkest and meanest crimes of simulation, bad faith, treachery, mendacity and ering. fraud, find the most disgusting illustratious in this whole affair on the part of the South. They will stand out individually and collec tively to the world's abhorrence and scorn. Yet Kentucky is invited to join this loathand submit her destiny to these simulators and dissemblers; and if she refuses, then

Along with all the disgusting mass, these simulators put on airs, assume a spirit of and lofty independence. All of which is needed to complete a character to be de spised and spurned by all decent white men Of all the insurrections, this is the meanest, and conducted by the worst men. They have disgraced a cause that had some merit, and will, finally, meet a disgraceful failure. if truth and justice have not forsaken this

We have a letter from an esteemed friend at "Camp Gill," at Olympian Springs, Bath county, under date of 14th iust., from which we make the following extract:

"Our regiment is filling up very fast. Since the Ohlo Second regiment reached us, a few days ago, onr recruiting goes on nobly The people have been encouraged very much by their coming, and are now not afraid to come in. We have had a noblo band of monntain boys with us, each one a "Tell," who have stood with us in the very face of the enemy (within a night's march), but the cry of our Spartau band has always been: 'Let them come.' The enemy have now two thousand five hundred poorly armed men, and badly organized Our regiment will be full in ten days, and we will show you, if an opportunity presents itself, how the mountain boys cau fight,"

Buckner must have been a good deal frightened to blow up the bridge across Green river. He is not coming this way, then. Our troops will soon, we trust, pay him a visit. The Confederates are under promise to leave the State as soon as the Federal troops leave it. We expect they will leave soon, and the Federal troops close after them. That's the nearest we can promise to accommodate them.

Brownson, like Greeley, thinks that to put down this rebellion, slavery must be put down, or the rebelliou oan't be put dowu. Brownson never had any common sense. His present opinion is not unex. pected. He must say something foolish, and had as well say this as anything else.

Captain C. N. Goulding has been duly appointed Quartermaster on General Rosecrans' staff. The Captain held the post for a time, before the advance on Carnifex's Ferry, and discharged his duties in a manner that many of the Quartermasters in Western Virginia would do well to imitate.

Letters received in the city from points beyond Elizabe thtown, as late as the 15th, state positively that Green river bridge has been rendered useless, if not entirely destroyed. The ends of the bridge have been let down by blowing up the abutments, and while the middle remains in position it is very much injured and of course useless.

A singular case of restoration after apparent death occurred on Wednesday, at Aibany. A little daughter of Mrs. Wilson, residing on First street, after a sudden relapse succeeding a severe illuess, appa rently died. The body did not stiffen, but every other symptom of death was present. The remains were prepared for the grave, when on Wednesday night the supposed dead child screamed and immediately the functions of life were resumed. Heavy perspiration ponred off the body in great quantities, and the pale, marble-like form assumed a healthy, red appearance. When the "dead" child screamed, those present, vate property, invested in good faith except the mother, became generally alarmed and ran out of the room. The mother rushed to the body, enclosed it in her arms, and removed it to a bed in the side room. The family physician was immediately sent for, who applied proper restoratives, and the child is now in a fair way of recov-

> JOSHUA F. SPEED, Esq.-We find the following tribute to a well known citizen in the letter of a Louisville correspondent of the New York Daily Times of recent date:

> The arms secured for Kentucky were mainly procured by Mr. Speed. Kentucky owes him a great debt of gratitude for his untiring exertions in her behalf. Jachua F. Speed is not known as he should be. He is modest, retiring, neassuming man; but his great practical wisdom is known here to his frienge. He is a man of large, compre hensive, practical common sense, and this is the substratum of his greatness. He is unquestionably a man of great wisdom. And in addition, and above all this, he is a mau of true virtue, the purest honor, and the most incorruptible integrity. Mr. Guthrie, who is his neighbor and friend, fully appreciates him, and entertains the opinion of him I have expressed.

It is for:nnate for Kentucky that Mr. Lincoln knows and appreciates Mr. Speed. In his early life, Mr. Speed lived in Spring field, Ill, for six or seven years, and during all the time he and President Lincoln were on the most intimate terms, and for over four years they were room mates. The most intimate relations have always existed between them, and they are now said to be as intimate and cordial as brothers. I es teem it fortunate for Kentucky, in this hour the head of the Federal Government to be a into the service. The applicant was much prudent and wise man, worthy of all coufilence. Mr. S. has rendered the State great himself to the cause of the State and the go into the Eagle Brigade.

"This same Gen. Sherman-brother of Senator John Sherman, of Ohio, himself a Alcock, the Minister, at different points, host in the present struggle for freedom—is an educated soldier. MEA_A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, writing from Mt. Sterling, Ky., gives the following item:

"The camp in Floyd county has been gaining in numbers daily, and from informatien which we have just received from there, it must number 5,000 to 6,000, and they are arranging to make a forward movement in the next few days. There are three passes through which alone they can return to this part of the State. These are sus ceptible of easy defense. With a few pieces of artillery at each of them, a few hundred men could hold their whole column in oheck until a force might be concentrated that would be able to drive them back into Virginia and scatter them.

Buckner couldn't persuade nor order Mississippians to destroy the locks on Green river-they would not do it-but what they refused to do renegade Kentuckians were found willing and anxious to undertake. This brigade consists of the regiments of Colouels Hambright, Stumbaug's and Sirwell, a battery of six pieces of artillery from Erie, and a cavalry company from Philadelphia, called the Negley Guards. The Forty-fifth regiment, under Col. Welsh, is ordered to the West also, and other regiments will proceed as rapidly as possible in the same direction. Probably as many Pennsylvanians will be sent to Kentucky as to Missonri.

"Heretofore, most of the Pennsylvania regiments have been employed along the line of the Polomac, from Williamsport down to Alexandria, The force there being new regiments are to be sent westward. There is as great a work to be done in Kentucky, in Missouri and along the Missiseippi, as there is in Virginia, and the gallaut soldiers of Pannsylvania will rajoice to fight along side of their Western brethren in defense of the Union. It is evident that the government is determined to have the army of the West put on as fine a footing as that of the Potomso, and will endeavor to have such reforms introduced as have been introduced by Gen. McClellan since his arrival in Washington. The visit of Secretary Camerou to St. Louis probably has reference to this, and the ordering of Pennsylvania troops to the West shows that it is determined to have a vary large army in Kentucky and Missonri."

INDIANS REFUSED FOR THE SERVICE .- The Buffalo Courier states that Isaac Newton Parker, a brother of Ely Parker, the Chief, went to the United States recruiting station iu Buffalo to be mustered into the service as a volunteer for the war. IMPORTANT FROM LEBANON.

A lady and two gentlemen just from Springfield, who passed through Lebanon, report that Gen. > The news received at Jefferson City from the southwest, up to the 13th, is very encoursging. Price is making strenuous efforts to get ont of Fremont's way, but his retreat is having a more disastrons effect on his ranks than an engagement would have. At every step his army is decreasirg, and reliable informants states that large numbers are deserting him every day; that the greatest discontent and distress prevails among them, and the entire army of State troops is kept from falling all to pieces by the terrorism held over them, through repeated statements that whenever they leave the rebel army, they will be hunted down by the Union troops, and ind'scriminately butchered or hung as

The Atlantic and Baltic, and others among the trausports, have guns mounted. Some idea may be formed of the magnitude of the expedition, when it is stated that what and where the property is, and the one of the transports—the Daniel Webster— name and residence of the holder, debter, carries little else but water for the troops. It is proposed to have this record kept through year, and through a series and thus compel the suu to tell us in his own hand writing whether he preserves or diminishes the fires of his youth, or is fading away in gradual decline.

> TO ARMS! ONE HUNDRED YOUNG MEN WANTED TO FILL A COMPANY OF CAVALRY TO SERVE IN A REGIMENT

Col. Jas. S. Jackson, AND ATTACHED TO THE COLUMN OF

Gen. R. Anderson. THE TIME FOR MEN TO COME TO THE IE.

Country's call has now arrived. Kentucky, through her beglalature, has again pro-laimed the loyalty to the Government framed by our fathers. Three times have the peoble, by overwhelming majorities, annonned to the world their opposition to revolution, and their elementation not to be dragged into the enry-ling sea of Secession.

But, with utter disre and for the known sentiments: the State, the vandals of the South, bent on destriction, are upon us like the locusts of Egypt devouring and destratating, markering and plingaged, They come with are and sword. As a cleastor their leader thrusts himself upon us, and around him come armed thousands to scourge a free people of a great State, into measures of revolution and bloodshed that they have ever repudiated.

revolution and bloodshed that they have ever repudiaced.

Rentucky, through her people's representatives, has Rentucky, through her people's representatives, have referred to embrace and harlest back the thooty principles taught by the involver, and is it to be said in snamming up the history of these great States, that Kentucky, proud, brave, mighty Kentucky, had not the unflinching course to drive back invasion, and that her people qualled when danger stood at their door? Not rather let time record that our glorious Commonwealth, like a warrior, sprang firmly in the field, and with Titan arm and manly strength, gave blow for blow, both thick and fast, till every invading foot had field her soil.

I want men of courage to join me in this undertaking. This for the young ant vigorous to fight the battles of their country, and announce to coming generations that the attempted conquest of Kentucky was met by her sons as it should have been—with steel to steel.

Men joining my company will receive pay for the time they are mustered in. wood horses, blankets, uniforms and arms will be provided, together with everything necessary for camp life. My men shall all be made comfortable at once.

The country says come—yours State says come—aumanity and civilization say come, and strike for all that man holds dear.

Washington, Oct. 15 .- Irregularities ave arisen in respect to Canada correspondence. These directions must be observed: First, letters addressed to Canada must be mailed and post billed to a United States Exchange officer. Letters cannot be sent direct to Postoffices in Uanada. Portland, Maine; Burlington, Rutland Island and Derby line, Vermont; Boston, Mass; New York, Albany, Buffalo, Troy, Plattesburg, Rown's Point, Ogdensburg, Rochester, Sackett's Harbor, Oswego, and Suspension Bridge, New York; Cleveland, Ohio; Detroit, Sault Ste. Part payments are not recognized. Propayments must be made by U. S. postage stamps, not in money. Postmasters will do well to preserve this statement. The special Washington correspondent of the Tribune has the following: This morning the Pocahontas, while passing Shipping Point, about ten miles from Indian Bend, fired into the woods and passed on her way. Immediately after, persons on the Yankee, anchored some miles above, could see rebels hastily felling trees, which, falling into the river, disclosed guns in embrasu es. Soon the Seminole attempted to go down, when a battery of two guns on the North point, and four on the South point of Quantico creek, opened upon her. plied, and the engagement continued an hour-the Semino'e keeping on her way, and the batteries for a considerable distance saluting her. At least sixty shot and shell were seen bursting and falling about her, while she steadily returned the fire and finally passed the last battery. What injury was inflicted on either is not known After the Seminole had passed, the batteries directed their fire on an oyster vessel, after which a rebel mounted the ramparts and waved,

It has been known for some time that the rebels have seven nine-inch guns, not mounted, in the region of this conflict, and these are doubtlessly there used Shells from at least one heavy rifled gun were heard hissing through the air. There must be twelve guns in position, some very heavy, as their reports shook the Yankee perceptibly for a week

The camp fires of the rebels have been extending far back from the place of action. Information has been received that a large body of troops have gone there from Acquis creek, opposite the enemy's line of batteries. The channel is but three quarters of a mile wide, and from shers but a mile and war vessel can safely pass, three batteries must be silenced.

Commander Craven witnessed the action from the Yankee, but was unable to render any assistance. He has come to the city and reported the above facts. A new water battery of most perfect construction, showthat two South Carolina regiments, among others, have left Beauregard's army. One was esteemed his crack regiment.

Unless the rebel emissaries, Mason and Slidell, suddenly changed the plan agreed upon for their exodus from the rebel States, they have not, as represented, sailed for Europe, from Charleston, in defiance of the blockade. As soon as the intelligence published to day reached here the Navy De-partment ordered a fast steamer to intercept them, and a despatch from New York to Secretary Wells was received to night stating that the steamer was ready and would supplied through the early morning mails, start off at once. If, however, Mason and by railroad and express, at the rate of fifty Slidell have not sailed from Charleston, but have taken the route agreed upon, they will find our Government on the watch for them. Herald's Dispatch .- It is evident now that the whole length of the shore, from Shipping Point at the mouth of the Quantico to the mouth of Chapamansie, is lined with taken only at its current rates by the batteries in which are mounted several rifled guns and others, carrying eight and nine-inch shells There are 6 of these batteries J. N. Collins sells the best of coal at in this distance; the main one, at Shipping his office. Third street, between Market and Point, has 4 guns. The others have at least two. Every vessel drawing over 6 feet is obliged to pass for four miles within three quarters of a mile of these batteries

A contraband states that there are no rebel troops this side of Flint Hill, except pickets at Vienna and Sumpter's Mill, on the Loudon and Hampshire Railroad. The main body of the enemy is concentrated on main body of the enemy is concentrated on line of Flint Hill, Fairfax Courthouse and Fairfax station, on the Orange and Alexan-dria Railroad. General Bonham commands at Flint Hill, and General Beauregard at Fairfax Courthouse. He heard nothing of de of College street, from First to Brook. General Johnston He states that there is a great deal of sickness in their camps, principally the black measles.

A private dispatch releived to-day announces that a body of rebel cavalry proceeded from Romney to the mouth of the upper branch of the Potomac, where the Baltimore and Ohio railroad crosses the line, and des'royed the bridge, which cost the company about $60,000.

Special Dispatches to the Cincinnati Papers.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.
Captain Henry Clay, son of Col. Clay who fell at Buena Vista, and a grandson of Henry Clay, has been appointed Assistant Adjutant General to Gen. Richard W. Johnson, to serve in Kentucky.

Capt. Shaw, of the Fifth Iowa, and Lieut. Col. W. Blair, of the Second Kansas Regiment, have resigued.

A letter from the companies of the Massachusetts Thirteenth, which recently passed through here on its way to Harper's Ferry, to protect the rebuilding of bridges, say there is a fair prospect of opening the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad within a few weeks.

Lieut. Cross, engineer, with 300 of the New York Forty-ninth, reconnoitered yez-terday two miles beyond Lewinsville, in front of Gen. Smith's position, where they found the enemy strongly posted in and about the houses. There was a little firing, but nobody was hurt on our eide.

Two shells were thrown last night into General McCall's camp. One burst in the air, and the other fell harmless. The rebels were to be seen to-day throwing up earthworks.

A letter found at Lewinsville, from a rebel officer to his mother, bidding her farewell, says there has been no hope of escape since Banks crossed above and McCiellan had advanced a little further forward. The rebel army of the upper Potomac would be crushed. The Government feels the increasing necessity of reopening full communications with the West, and will take immediate measures to put in order the Baltimore and Ohio Railread. Col. Lander is detailed to take the whole matter in charge. This gave rise to the rumor of his appointment to a Msjor Generalship.

A traveler from upper Virginia saysthere is no rebel force at Winchester. Several thousand militia are at Martinsburg. There is a strong undercurrent of Unionism at Winohester. Groceries there sell at famine

The Washington Star expresses the opinion that the Union sentiment was never so strong in the valley of Virginia as now The report from New Orleans of a successful attack upon our vessdis at the head of Passes is discredited at the Navy Department. Hollins is known to be a great and lying boaster.

The True Democrat, of Peoria, Ill, has been denied the right of the mails.

A clump of woods believed to mask a battery was shelled yesterday afternoon from our works on Minor's Hill, three shots being thrown bursting within the woods. No response was made, but this morning two shells, thrown in the same direction, called out several shells from the enemy at that point, which burst in the air midway.

The pickets are very near each other, and frequent skirmishes are now resulting dilly. Yesterday afurnoon a large scouting party of the New York Sixty-ninth, and of McQuade's New York Fourteenth, just north of Fall's Church, had a sharp little brush with a body of rebel infantry, in which one of our men of the former regiment was wounded. Several of the enemy and one captain of a North Carolina company were killek.

To-day, in full sight of our lines, just above Fall's Church, the rebels, numbering about 100, burned the house of a widow Child, of known loyal sympathy, who has been a close prisoner on her own place for some weeks; her property was protected by the influence of a rebel, Mr. Butler, the administrator on her late husband's estate. Everything was destroyed.

This afternoon a rebel trooper was shot by one of the scouts of the New York Fourteenth.

At several points along their lines to-day I saw with a glass the rebel cavalry and infantry.

It is believed generally that their show along their lines is a feint merely, though it is asserted that they are in considerable force, and have been increased within two weeks. Certainly, none of our operations are predicated on assumptions to the contrary.

CCLUMBUS, Oct. 15. Grand Master Rex, in the re-opening address before the Grand Lodge of Masons to day, took strong ground; against the rebellion. The address was referred to a committee, from which strong resolutions may be expected.

A fire at the penitentiary to-night destroy-ed Peter Hayden's shop and part of the hospital. Loss about $20,000.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 15 -Brig. Gen. Wood left for Kentucky last night. He will take command of the column moving down the Louisville & Nashville Rullroad. His father's house, on Green river, where he was born, is now occupied by rebels.

There was a mistake in the transmission of my last night's report Buckner has not left Bowlinggreen, and is there with 20,000 men.

PRICE, DEPENDING ON HIS HEELS, LEAV ING MISSOURI -A Jefferson City correspondent of the Missouri Republican says:

The news from the Southwest is altogether Patty will come out in the North Briton.

Patterson, the abortionist, who was respited until Friday next, had his sentence upon them than the loss of a battle could possibly have. At every step of his march place at Cyclades, in Russian Poland, and the mayor of that place was killed.

The third rectionary movement had taken possibly have. At every step of his merch his army is decreasing, and becoming more the mayor of that place was killed. thoroughly reliable sources, that large Paris, and there had been some agitation in numbers are deserting him every day; that that city, owing to the advance in the price | the greatest discontent and distress prevails smong them, and the whole army of State troops is only kept from falling to pieces and deserting en masse by the terror held over them that whenever they go they will remerselessly hunted down by the Union troops, and indiscriminately butchered or hung as traitors. Price, no doubt, thoroughly understands how little reliance is to be placed upon these men, and being unable to restore confidence by making a stand and giving Fremont battle, is hastening to fall back into Arkansas, upon reinforcements from the more thoroughly disaffected States. It is well known now that he will take up his winter quarters in Arkansas, but whether our army will suffer him to remain there quietly remains to be seen.

> The following statement appears in the Atlas, a London weekly journal: We understand that one of the most efficient modes by which the American Goversment attracts our young soldiers in Canada across the frontier is to send over a deputation of the fair sex, armed, in addition to their personal charms, with pockets full of dollars, twenty of which they are authorized to offer to each soldier as a premium for desertion. We set up this standard not as a matter of idle display, but as an expression indicative that, in the mighty struggle which has been forced upon us, we are of ene heart and one mind; that the Government of Eleven companies have been mustered in heart and one mind; that the Government of the country must be sustained —Edward OFFICE AT ILIS RESIDENCE, ON LAPAYETTE be any promised.
